

Be Informed
Be Inspired
Be Connected

IWIRC Ontario Network - 2021 Year in Review

2021 was an amazing year for our chapter and its members! The IWIRC Ontario Network would like to thank each of you for your contribution over the past year. Thanks to all of you who attended our virtual and in-person events this past year, shared photos and encouraged new members to join.

Member Achievements

Constance de Grosbois was promoted to Managing Director at BMO Capital Markets.

Stacey Greenbaum passed the Competency-based National Insolvency Exam.

Congratulations for the amazing achievements Constance and Stacey!

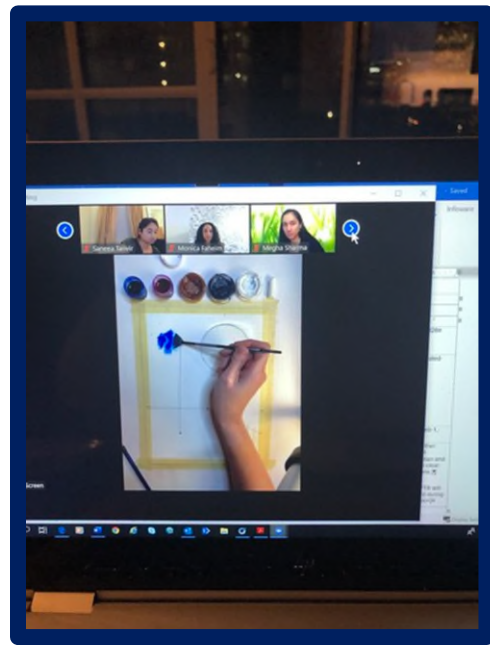

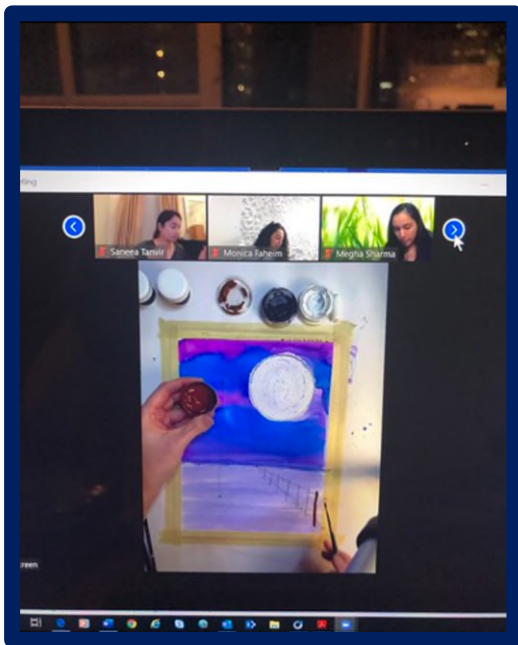

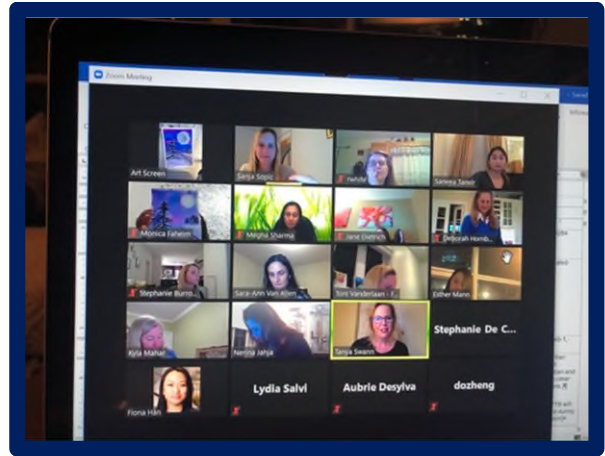

We are dedicated to promoting all of our members' professional achievements through social media and the IWIRC's international website so that our hard work is recognized. Please provide us with your news and we would be pleased to promote it across the Ontario Network and internationally!

2021 IWIRC Ontario Events

Here is a look back at some of our favourite moments from 2021:

Spring Event- Virtual Paint Night

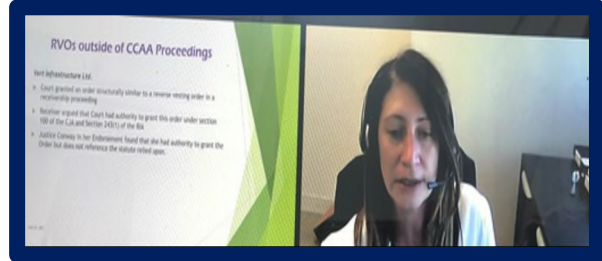

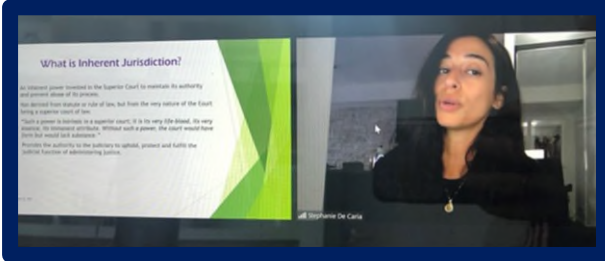

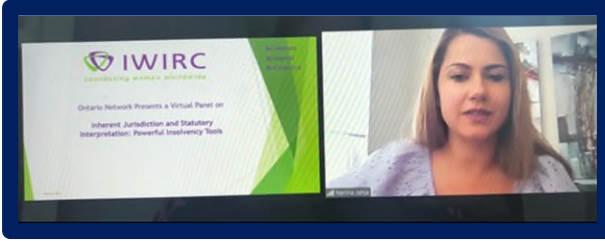

On February 25, 2021, IWIRC Ontario Network hosted a virtual paint night with Art in Action! Participants were able to enjoy the opportunity to get creative during networking with their colleagues.

Virtual Spring Event: Panel on Inherent Jurisdiction and Statutory Interpretation: Powerful Insolvency Tools

On June 23, 2021, members of the Ontario Network joined a panel of experts to discuss the Canadian Courts' inherent jurisdiction and statutory interpretation tools.

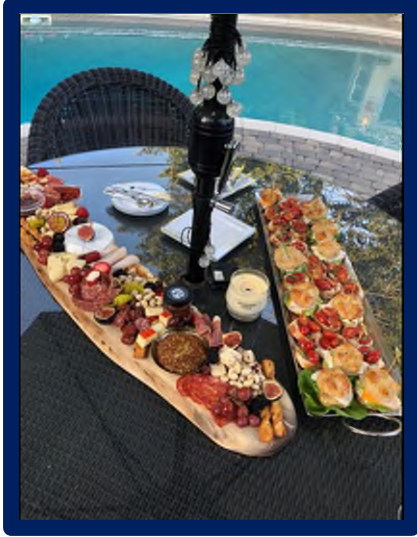

The panel consisted of Nerina Jahja (A. Farber & Partners Inc.), Stephanie De Caria (Miller Thomson LLP), Heather Meredith (McCarthy Tétrault LLP) and Maya Poliak (Chaitons LLP).

Summer Event: Backyard Summer Social

On August 12, 2021, the IWIRC Ontario Network hosted an in-person get together providing an opportunity for members to reconnect in person after long months of working and networking from home during the pandemic.

In-person Winter Event: Festive Afternoon Tea at the Windsor Arms

On December 9, 2021, the IWIRC Ontario Network hosted a festive afternoon tea at the Windsor Arms Hotel in Toronto. Members connected in person over tea and treats just ahead of the holiday season.

Upcoming Events – Stay Tuned!

The IWIRC Ontario Network has many more events in store for 2022. Stay tuned for the IWIRC Ontario Network's 2022 Annual General Meeting and other upcoming events, which you won't want to miss! We look forward to seeing all of you in 2022!

Thank you!