

CPE for IWIRC at the Shore is provided by Armstrong & Associates International

Date: February 25-27, 2024

Location:

Omni Grove Park Inn, Asheville, NC

To register for this conference, click here: <https://www.omnihotel.com>

Participants will earn 1.2 Behavioral Ethics CPE Credits

Field of Study: Behavioral Ethics

Prerequisites: Participants should either be practicing bankruptcy attorneys, judges, professors, or law students studying bankruptcy; or be CPA's or Financial Advisors or business students studying bankruptcy.

Advanced Preparation: None, but materials will be posted online before the conference begins.

Program Level: Intermediate

Delivery Method: Group Live

Participants will:

Understand how our personal wellbeing impacts our many ethical obligations. This presentation moves beyond the words of competence, diligence and communication into the development of the practical qualities that make you a "trusted advisor" to your clients. Excellence in the day to day legal profession involves the ongoing interplay between our IQ and our EQ on many levels. Learn to cultivate a positive and powerful mindset to move yourself forward towards thriving in 2024 and being your favorite "Super Lawyer" self in providing legal services to your clients

Fees and Cancellations: This event was free of charge for IWIRC members

Armstrong Associates is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org